Newsletter: August 16, 2019

Hi Rotarians!

Here is this week's meeting plan:

August 16- My Team Triumph, Mike Imhoff, Meeting at Mid-State in Community Room.

Here are the announcements/reminders for this week

- No winner last week, and the Raffle is down to just a few cards, so bring your dollars and get in on this on Friday!
- Bring a guest and get entered into a giveaway for a $25 Main Grain gift card! Bring 2 guests and get 2 entries- 3 guests and get 3 entries and on and on!
- October will be our first Place of Peace meal, Barb will bring info to our Sept Club assembly, we will collaborate with Roteract on this
- Michelle Miller, the UW-SP staff advisor for Rotaract, let us know about their blood drive happening in December and the opportunity for us to volunteer there. Sign-up info coming!
- Welcome Joao! Barb, Rachel and David were part of the group at the airport to greet and welcome our incoming RYLA student from Brazil! Joao is staying with the Wetters and we look forward to seeing him at our upcoming meetings!

More Better Different Less member survey

If you haven't been at the last few meetings, a little info about this- the More Better Different Less survey is a "pulse check" that I put together so members can share their input on the activities we do as a group. I have received a few back and would love to get some more so I can be sure to hear from everyone.

See you Friday!!!
